The said bill was then sent to the Senate for concurrence
On motion by Mr. Done,

The House then proceeded to consider the unfinished business of yesterday, in reference to the bill reported by Mr. Grason, Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, entitled, an additional supplement to the act of December session, 1827, chapter 117, entitled, an act to regulate the issuing of licenses to traders, keepers of ordinaries, and others, which had been made the order of the day for yesterday.

And in the progress of the second reading thereof,

On motion by Mr. Grason, the said bill was amended in its first section, by striking out the words, "them and," in the 5th and 6th lines of that section; and also by striking out the letter "s" from the word "fees," in the said 5th line, printed bill.

Mr. Goldsborough moved further to amend the said first section, by striking out "one thousand," in the 9th line of that section, and inserting, in lieu thereof, "five hundred."

Mr. Done having required a division of the motion, the question was put on striking out, and determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Jenifer, the said section was further amended, by striking out, "and if more than three thousand,
